Bible Passage: Psalm 92:12-15

1. WARM UP

2. If you could instantly master any musical instrument without having to practice, which one would you choose and what song would you play first?

3. Thinking about classic or vintage things (such as a car, a family recipe, a song, or furniture), what is something you believe genuinely gets better with age?

2. KNOW IT

4. Read Psalm 92:12–15 together (feel free to read it in two different translations if available). Which words, images, or promises stand out most to you in these verses?

5. The psalmist compares the righteous to two distinct trees: the palm tree and the cedar of Lebanon. Based on what we know about these trees and what was shared in the sermon, what does each one teach us about walking with God over a lifetime?

6. According to verses 13–15, what is the key requirement for bearing fruit in old age, and what is God’s ultimate purpose for keeping His people healthy and strong?

7. The message pointed out that Moses received his defining call at 80, that Caleb at 85 asked for a mountain to conquer, and that Anna and Simeon, already old, held the Savior in the temple. What do these examples reveal about how God measures time and a person's worth, compared to how the world does?

3. SHARE IT

8. The sermon compared our lives to a seasoned violin that may show scratches or worn varnish, yet produces a richer melody in the Master’s hands. When has a "storm" or difficult season in your life ultimately produced a deeper faith in you?

9. Who has been a "cedar" or a "beacon of faith" in your spiritual journey whose prayers or example anchored you when you needed it most?

4. LIVE IT

10. In what area of your life have you been tempted to "put yourself back in the case" or assume your best days of impact are behind you? How does remembering that God still has an assignment for you shift your perspective?

11. What is one practical step you can take this week to bless another generation? (For example: if you are older, intentionally praying for, mentoring, or sharing a story of God's faithfulness with someone younger; if you are younger, reaching out to honor, listen to, and thank an older believer.)

12. Check-In Question: What are you hoping or asking God to do in your life and family during this season?
